Kemper To Speak Memorial Day

The Memorial Day Committee has announced the final plans for the Memorial Day Services and Parade.

A rifle platoon from Fort Devens will lead the parade as in past years. The naval unit is available to Andover only every three years and will not march here this year. The Sacred Heart School authorities have notified the committee that the school has no band this year.

The speaker at the main service at Memorial Auditorium will be Headmaster John M. Kemper of Phillips Academy. The Phillips Academy Band and contingent will be in line again this year.

The Memorial Sunday service will be held Sunday, May 28 in St. Augustine's Church at the 10 a.m. Mass.

More Than 800 Questionnaires In

Over 800 questionnaires have now been received by the League of Women Voters, which sent out some 1,500 of the four-page document a few weeks ago.

The League has urged all those who received, but failed to return the filled-out questionnaire, to complete it and return the form immediately. A cut-off time of May 18 has been established, by which time all questionnaires must be returned if they are to be tabulated.

Town boards have joined with the League in urging residents to answer the questions, because they are keenly interested in knowing how the town feels about many of the questions.

A number of the questions deal with the background of the family

"It is my good fortune and great happiness to have been elected mayor of Andover for 1961-'62. I am very anxious to do what I can further to develop the friendly relationships existing between our town and yours.

The addition of two applications this week brought to 22 the total of persons interested in being granted one package store license.

Twenty applications were advertised in last week's Townsman, while the two additional notices appear in the week's edition.

There has been no official statement from the Selectmen, giving any indication as to how the choice will be made. It has been understood, however, that applications will be screened by the Selectmen prior to a decision.

Applicants for the single available license have been sending out the required notices to abutters. One of the legal requirements is that abutters receive the notice, and thus they have the opportunity to register any objections with the Selectmen.

Heard Discussion Of Urban Renewal

Members of the Board of Trade held a spirited discussion of urban renewal Tuesday night, following a brief business meeting held at the Andover Inn.

In the business session, members authorized President Kenneth P. Thompson to appoint a committee to plan a sidewalk bazaar on a date during the first half of June. Police and fire officials have approved the idea, and the Board is now awaiting approval from the Selectmen.

A Nominating Committee was elected, to report at the annual meeting in June. Members are John Hewitt, Robert Phinney and John Grecoe.

How Free

Are "Free" Stamps?

Are some words, like R-U-B-B-E-R, stretched to the breaking point of believability? Let's see how free the so-called "free" trading stamps really are.

Do stamp producers give them away free? Not at all; they sell them to merchants for cash.

Do the merchants' employees who handle and re-handle stamps work for free? Ours work only for cash.

Do the merchants who advertise stamps get newspaper space free? For our space we pay cash.

If stamps cost the merchants cash to buy, cash to handle and cash to advertise, where does all this cash come from?

Unless merchants who buy stamps operate a clandestine money machine (which we don't for a moment believe) the source of that cash could be you.

The only exception we can think of are those rare cases where a merchant is the only one in his field to go into the stamp business. In such cases, increased volume may temporarily lower his operating costs to the point where stamps may be said to "pay for themselves." In the vast majority of cases, stamps aren't so free after all!

The CO-OP exists to help people save money on food. But CO-OP customers don't save fictitious money; CO-OP customers save CASH - the Real Coin of the Realm.

TRIP TO CANADA — These youngsters, top students in the graduating French class at Pike School, have a chance to travel to Canada this June, where they will visit sites in Quebec. They speak only French on the trip. In front are Tim Gillingham and Mac McCabe; in the second row are Mrs. Alan Gillingham, Bruce Ganem, Wendy Burns, Judy Flint, Steve Seeche and Mrs. Keith Chisholm. Rosamond Kemper was absent. (Staff Photo)

Pike Students Planning Trip

Again this year, Mrs. Alan Gillingham and Mrs. Keith Chisholm are planning to take the top seven students in the graduating French class at the Pike School to Montreal.

It has become customary for the boys and girls to speak only French at all times during the course of their visit, which this year will extend from June 12 through 16.

The seven boys and girls who qualified for this trip by reason of their excellence in speaking and writing the French language are Wendy Burns, Judith Flint, Bruce Ganem, Timothy Gillingham, Rosamond Kemper, Frederic McCabe Jr. and Steven Seeche. The boys and girls have had planned for them an interesting trip which includes visits to outstanding sites in Quebec. In the past three years the group from the Pike School has been warmly greeted by the French residents of Quebec. The citizens very much appreciated the thought that American students were willing and able to come to them to share so fully the French culture and language.

Civil Service: Improvement of the Massachusetts public personnel system.

Constitutional Revision: Methods of Constitutional amendment; Areas of reform related to increased efficiency and economy in government.

Study and support of measures leading toward effective regional planning in the interests of sound rural, urban and suburban developments.

Harry Sellars, 5 Avon st., has presented the Andover Village Improvement Society with a piece of land on the Shawsheen river at the western end of Central st.

It is located near the horn bridge underpass. Because of its convenient location, it has been used many years as a place for launching canoes. Many will remember the boat house which once stood there. Posts of the platform, formerly used, are still to be seen.

MISS CATHERINE GOSS

Miss Catherine Goss will be the soloist at the forthcoming concert of the Andover Male Choir and the Andover Choral Society. The concert will be presented Wednesday, May 17, at 8:15 p.m. at the Andover High School.

Everett Collins, was impressed by her exceptional voice and encouraged her to take solo parts in Choral presentations.

Now a senior, Cathy is looking forward to continuing her training at the Boston University College of Music. Meanwhile, in her brief career, she has appeared as soloist in a number of concerts with the Beverly Men's Singing Club and Andover Male Choir, in many school affairs, and in church choir work. The members of the Male Choir, who number themselves among her admirers, are proud to present her in their spring concert. J. Everett Collins directs the concert and Miss Ann DiLavore is the accompanist.

Appeals Board Issues Decisions

The Board of Appeals has turned down two requests for variances, involving the moving of houses that will be in the path of Route 495, and has approved two other requests.

Approved was the request of Harold Rutter Jr. to allow an addition to a building at 211 North Main st., in the old general industrial zone. The variance was needed in relation to side line limits set by the 1961 town meeting.

Roger Lewis, 28 Laurel ln., received permission to convert a one-family house to two apartments. The Board noted that there would be little exterior change in the house, and that the area is surrounded by farm land owned by Mr. Lewis.

Turned down was the request by Joseph Medolo, relating to property owned by Charles D. Roberts on Magnolia ave. Mr. Medolo's home is on Middle st., and is subject to land taking procedures by the state. The lot he wished to obtain on Magnolia ave. is undersized, according to Zone A requirements. The Board noted that it has twice turned down requests for variances concerning this lot, and must do so again, although appreciating the plight of the petitioner.

The other negative decision concerned a lot at Allen and Middle sts., owned by Nunzio Cristaldi. Gaetano Medolo asked permission to move his home from Middle st. onto the lot, where a building is now located. The Appeals Board said this would create two lots, both greatly undersized for the Zone A residential use described in the by-law.

Don Sagasser received a gold arrow and David Duncan gold and silver arrows.

During the rest of the meeting the Pinewood Derby races were run off. The winners were first, Frank Roetiger; second, Scott Currier; and third, Dan Kent.

WE GIVE S & H GREEN STAMPS WITH ALL CASH PURCHASES

The highlight of the evening was the graduation ceremony of seven Cub Scouts from the Webelos into the Boy Scouts. The ceremony was under the leadership of Edmund Wesolowski. Participating in the ceremony welcoming the Webelos into the respective Boy Scout groups were John McAllister of Troop 75, Peter Wilson of Troop 71 and Richard Takesian of Troop 15. The Cub Scouts who graduated after fulfilling all requirements were Danny Vilnett, Tommy O'Leary, Joseph Wesolowski, Richard and Robert Henderson, Edward Becker and Richard Clukey.

At the outset of the Pack meeting, a question and answer period was held with all the questions pertaining to the achievement of the American astronaut. Following this, a standing ovation was given to Cmdr. Alan B. Shepard for his historic achievement. Other program activities were the opening ceremonies put on by Den 6, under the direction of Den Mothers Mrs. Robert Henderson and Mrs. Paul McKinnon. This den also put on an activity entitled "A Pow-Wow". The Theme of the Month skit "Indian Country" was put on by Den 1 under the direction of Mrs. Stella Dimmock. The quality of the performance of the participants in the latter activity indicated that there were many rehearsals and much preparation.

The closing ceremony was under the leadership of Michael Breen and was performed by Webelos Den members.

The Pack plans to participate in the Memorial Day parade, contingent on the number of Cubs available.

Round-Off Assessments

Mechanization of the assessors' office, through purchase of a new Addressograph, has resulted in the rounding off of all property assessments to the nearest $100.

Assessor Bernard Magane explained that the "round" figures will make it possible to figure tax increases in the future from 10 cents to a dollar. If the assessments were not rounded off, future increases would have been figured on the basis of $1 increase, according to requirements of the new machinery.

Thus, according to Mr. Magane, there should be little if any change in an individual tax bill this year, as a result of the rounding-off process - but in future years, there may be considerable savings because the increases can be figured in parts of a dollar instead of by one dollar.

The Addressograph, which cost $9,671.16, is now being set up, and all tax bills and the tax book will be handled on the new machine. Bills are expected to be ready this year at about the same time as last - but future years should bring about earlier mailing of the bills.

Looking back a year, Collins recalled that Andover tied with Amesbury - but only after putting on a dazzling finish in the relays. Andover is 3-0 in the Conference this year, and Amesbury also sports a 3-0 record. Newburyport was a common opponent, and both teams soundly trounced the "Port" team.

Collins estimated that Amesbury and Woburn probably offer the stiffest team competition; while Reading is "a powerhouse" in the Middlesex League.

Saturday's meet offers medals for the first four places, a Boosters' trophy for the winning team and a trophy for the most valuable performer.

The only non-scoring event in Saturday's meet is the pole vault. However, medals will be awarded for winners.

Scoring events will be the high and low hurdles, high and broad jumps, shot put, discus, javelin, relay, mile, and the 880, 440, 220 and 100 yard races.

Robert McIntyre will serve as referee and the judges will be Homer Wadman, Walter Pearson, Ed Seero, John Rooks, Bill Igge, Jim Bennett and George Connors. Timers include Jim Christie, J. Everett Collins, Hal Wennik, Roger Whitcomb, Philip Bamford and Wes Eastman.

Ed Bolia will be chief inspector and Ted Steeves, clerk.

Assisting with field events will be Joe Dorsey and Alex Thompson.

Charles W. McCullom, president of the Boosters' Club, will be in charge of awards.

The All-Girl Band will also appear at the meet.

HAVE RECEIVED 800 QUESTIONNAIRES

while keeping identity unknown. They include queries about length of residence in the town, where employed, number of persons in the household, shopping habits, and home ownership.

Many others ask the opinion of the resident:

What type of town do you think Andover is today - residential suburban, residential suburban with industrial and business flavor, residential suburban with industrial flavor or with business flavor?

Six choices are available for answers to the question "Considering the next 10-20 years, what do you think is most important in the development of Andover?" The choices include - additional industry, additional business, more rental property, selected spots of apartments, built up in large lots, remain generally the same.

Those questioned have been asked to indicate what three things they like best about Andover, with a long list of choices: public and private schools, size, proximity to work, rural character, prestige, proximity to good roads, business opportunities, people, town appearance, relation to Lawrence-Lowell, shopping facilities, progress of town, Library.

The dislikes are also covered, with the following list to be checked off: taxes, shopping facilities, recreation, crowded, rapid growth, politics, roads, new residential developments, town appearance, lack of town services, traffic, lack of town progress.

Recipients were asked their preference on municipal pick-up of trash and garbage; and were asked their opinion on the type of property that best supports itself by taxes - farm, residential, business, industrial, apartments, or other.

For those who checked the "yes" answer to the question "Should we strive to preserve the open character of Andover?", there was a list of methods by which this can be done: tax measures to encourage continued use of farm land for that purpose, town-purchase of land, by eminent domain or negotiation; large lot zoning, or establishing a trust to buy land, making it possible for the town to control its use.

Public recreational facilities were listed, with the request that one or more items be checked as facilities that would be used, but which are not available: parks, picnic and hiking areas; hunting areas, playgrounds, skating rinks, teenage recreation facilities, family recreation facilities, tennis courts, swimming pools or, none.

Recipients were also asked whether the recreational facilities should be tax supported, privately, or jointly supported by taxes and private funds.

Summer recreational facilities were listed, with the request that the specific one be checked by those who use it.

Types of industry were considered, with a chance to check the type that should come here: industrial park like Route 128, small scattered manufacturing firms with less than 100 employees each, large plants like Avco or Western Electric, or none.

"Do you feel Andover has enough industry?" and if yes, check one of these: industry would impair present character, would decrease value of nearby residences, would encourage excessive growth of the town, would increase public expenditures not balanced by taxes from the industry, increase traffic congestion. If the answer to the question was no, the following were listed: Industry would lower taxes, open up more employment opportunities in town, encourage growth of the town, increase property values.

All were asked whether they would mind if a clean industrial establishment was built within one-quarter of a mile of their home.

The questionnaire asked whether shopping facilities are adequate in town, and if to be expanded, should this be by specialty shops, neighborhood stores, one or more department stores, community shopping center, regional shopping center, or other.

Participation in the regional vocational school was mentioned, and increasing the school day was also the subject of a question.

The longer school year was discussed; and opinions asked about other subjects to be included in the evening practical arts programs.

Continuation of summer school was queried, and the purposes listed: for enrichment, for remedial work, for secondary students or for elementary pupils. Methods of financing the summer school were listed - tuition, taxes or part tax, part tuition.

If the answer was yes to a question about wanting other educational programs in Andover or the larger community, the following list was provided - public school adult education, regional community college, community trade school, expanded regional library service or other.

Newcomers Mark 11th Anniversary

The Andover Newcomers' Club will bring to a close its 11th year of service to newly-arrived residents of the town, at its annual luncheon Monday afternoon, May 15, at the Andover Inn.

The luncheon, scheduled for 1 o'clock, will be followed by the annual meeting and election of officers, Mrs. Paul P. Gyrsting, presiding.

At the conclusion of the meeting, Brendan Farrington, director of public relations for Phillips Academy, will conduct a tour of the Academy buildings and grounds. This is bound to be of great interest to new residents of the town.

The Newcomers' Club was organized in 1950 by Mrs. H. Allison Morse of Foster Cir., for the purpose of acquainting new people with the services and facilities available, and to provide an opportunity for newcomers to meet others with similar problems.

During the past 11 years, over 3,000 individuals have enjoyed the companionship of club members and the monthly meetings which have proved to be both entertaining and educational.

Mrs. George Gliss and her committee are in charge of luncheon plans; Mrs. Peter Katter and her aides are working on table decorations. Anyone wishing to make reservations for this meeting may call Mrs. Robert Driscoll or Mrs. John Hedrick. Any newcomer to Andover is cordially invited to attend.

ANNUAL OUTING

The social committee of the Ballardvale United Church is planning an all-Church outing and picnic, to be held Sunday, May 28, following the morning worship service at Rolling Ridge, North Andover.

All are invited to bring the family and a picnic lunch. There will be games, swimming, etc., planned by the committee.

Congratulations, Mayor Machin

Indeed, we'd like to offer the suggestion that Andover residents might wish to personally express their good wishes, both as a gesture of friendship to our companion community and to Mrs. Machin personally. Letters may be addressed to Mrs. Brenda Machin, The Vicarage, Andover, Hampshire, England.

But most important of all, drivers must be constantly on the alert for danger along the streets. The heavy traffic, pedestrians, playing children - all must be watched sharply and constantly by every person sitting behind the wheel of a vehicle. Only by constant alertness can the number of accidents be decreased.

Parties for Littlest Listeners

The closing meetings for the Littlest listener groups are always in the form of a party to which mothers are invited. The Ballardvale group has had its party, and the Ballardvale members will enjoy their last day program this Thursday.

Next Wednesday, May 17, the Robins group will close the season for the pre-school groups. Mothers will remain with the boys and girls to enjoy the games and stories. Light refreshment will be served.

This year the Andover meetings have been very few in number as the alterations to the building made it difficult to find time and space for extra groups. However, there has been a good attendance since the groups were organized.

During the summer there will be registration slips available for mothers who wish to enter their children in the fall program. This pre-registration makes it much simpler to divide the children into groups which allow a mother to bring several children from her own neighborhood, if she wishes.

Announcement will be made at pre-registration will begin.

Mental Health Display

The first week of May was as Mental Health Week, and the display arranged in the Memorial Hall Library may still be seen. Each year more and more readers turn to books for help with everyday problems that come their way, but for many there is need for specific information to realize that their situation is serious. As one of the titles included in the display is "every other bed" in the hospital of the United States is occupied by a mentally ill person. Among the books displayed are the following: Every Other Bed, Gorman; Mental Health, Lang; The Face of Glass, Martin; Emotional Illness, Beutner; Basic Psychology, Strecker; Beyond Freud, Anderson; Hope For The Troubled Teenager, The Mind Alive, Overstreet; Emotional Problems of Love, English; The Health of The Mind, Rees; Your Normal Mind, Follett; Community Programs For Mental Health, Kotinsky; Live At Peace With Your Nerves, Alvarez; Restoring Mental Health In Schools, Association for Superstition and Curriculum.

All material displayed may be borrowed for home use.

Best Sellers Popular

An interesting exhibit of books was arranged for National Library Week at the library and the interest shown in it has kept the display up and moving. Best sellers were selected for each year since the beginning of the century, and arranged in groups. The last 20 years' vintage created the greatest stir, as readers recalled with pleasure certain titles long forgotten; many volumes, shabby, dingy and well thumbed, have been into circulation. Comments on their return will be most welcome, since those who handle them are well aware that a re-run of an old favorite often creates an interpretation, but supplies a new one.

The display will remain in the middle of the month.

HEARD DISCUSSION ON URBAN RENEWAL

Urban renewal director James W. Franklin was guest speaker at the meeting. He described the renewal area, and spoke about the possibility that a plan for the area will be ready in six weeks, when he wishes to again discuss the subject with the merchants.

Many specific questions concerning the project were left

Abbot Students In Art Exhibit

The annual art exhibition now being shown at the John Esther Art Gallery of Abbot Academy represents the work of both beginners and advanced students in the Art Studio.

During this year, Abbot girls have made drawings in pencil, charcoal, pastels, inks, and crayons. They have painted in water color, tempera, casein, and oils, and have experimented with paper, wire, plaster, seeds, and sand. Some girls have carved and chiseled in stone and others have made block prints. Sue Burton, an Andover resident, has formed a chicken in wire. The pictures exhibited include examples of classroom problems in drawing and in the understanding of the principles of art.

Most of the oil paintings are imaginative, ranging from representational expression to the abstract study of forms and space.

to be answered at the later date.

Mr. Franklin emphasized that the merchants should be specially interested in the plans at this time, when they are still "fluid". He suggested that the merchants consider forming their own real estate corporation, to purchase the commercial properties within the renewal area, develop them and, in effect, become their own landlords. If this course is not adopted, outside interests will probably purchase the area and develop it, leasing the buildings to various merchants. Mr. Franklin made no effort to avoid the possibility that some persons, in a project of this size, will be hurt. But he pointed out that the over-all good to the community must be considered when forming plans for the area.

In this light, he mentioned that, although rents may be higher in a newly-constructed area, business normally increases too. He explained that rents on Main st. now are unusually low, compared with other business areas.

Greener lawns are made this way

Familiar sight on lawns these days

Remember when fertilizing a lawn was a dirty, back-breaking job that nobody would think of asking the lady of the house to do? How times have changed since clean, odorless, lightweight TURF BUILDER® came along! Today, milady (unasked) finds a brisk stroll with the Scotts Spreader a welcome change from indoor duties. And the greener, thicker lawn she gets is a constant source of pride and joy. Why not take a TURF BUILDER "lawn break" yourself?

Dear friends,

Recently we were asked if a person could make advance arrangements for his funeral... select the desired vault and casket, determine details of the funeral, and place the required funds for that purpose in a local bank.

Such pre-arrangement of funerals is feasible and we offer to explain the details to anyone interested.

Respectfully,

Donald E. Lundgren

Robert Carlson Was Elected PF President

Congregational young people, members of the Massachusetts Pilgrim Fellowship, at a recent annual meeting in Framingham, have elected Robert Carlson, 11 Shawsheen rd., as president of that organization for the coming year.

Massachusetts Pilgrim Fellowship is made up of approximately 38,000 young people of Congregational Churches in all sections of the state. Sunday, the delegates elected officers for the coming year and it was then that Mr. Carlson was designated to his new position. As president, he will be the leader of the statewide Congregational youth group, and will often meet with local and Associational groupings of churches to interpret the youth work of the denomination.

At the same Conference, Betsey Chase and Barry Low, also of Andover, were elected to positions on the Commission Council of Massachusetts Pilgrim Fellowship. The Commission Council is the group from which the working committees of the state organization will be formed and appointed.

Mrs. Lois Lyman and her daughter, Mary, recently returned to their home on Chandler rd., after spending several weeks in Sarasota, Fla.

Andover Cemeteries will have new flags placed on them during the period of May 26 through May 28. Services at all cemeteries will be held by the veteran organizations after the parade May 30.

Complete details of the parade, line of march, route of march and services en route will be announced later.

22 WANT
LIQUOR LICENSE

In past years, when objections have been received, the Board has scheduled a public hearing to allow all interested parties to speak. In cases where there have been no objections, the Selectmen have issued the license without a public hearing, as this is not required by law.

There has been no decision on hearings, to date, nor can it be determined whether any objections have been voiced to the applications or the sites described in them.

The only note of confusion that has crept into the discussion has been that occasioned by silliness of names. Selectman William Stewart, who has not applied for the license, has been disturbed because Police Officer William Stewart did apply - and thus many persons assumed that the Selectman was applying for the package store.

WON PRIZES

Two members of the Spade and Trowel Garden Club won awards at the recent spring flower show at the Essex Agricultural School.

Four members of the Club entered exhibits in the horticultural class. Winning were Mrs. Wilson Neisser, and exhibit of variegated Achyranthus, first in the upright foliage division; and Mrs. Wallace Turgiss, honorable mention for a display entitled "Rembrandt".

Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Andover Council of Churches will be held Tuesday, May 16, at The South Church.

Supper will be served at 6:30 p.m., followed by a business meeting and election of officers. All delegates are urged to attend.

McAnern Elected
By Church League

Robert McAnern of the Free Church has been elected president of the Church Basketball League, following the annual post-season meeting of the group.

Harry Chase of Christ Church is the first vice president; Frank Killilea, St. Augustine's Church, second vice president; Charles O. McCullom, South Church, treasurer; and Earl Simon, Ballard Vale United Church, secretary.

Richard Neal will serve as director of the League.

Named to the Board of Directors, in addition to the officers, were Selectman William Stewart, and Robert Van Der Zee.

Charles Kellogg
In Cycling Club

Charles W. Kellogg II, class of '62, son of Mrs. Waters Kellogg, 59 Phillips st., has become a charter member of the Williams Cycling Club.

With the signing of its charter the club joins a rapidly growing number of collegiate cycling clubs on the East Coast. It is composed of nine enthusiasts, each of whom has spent in excess of $100 equipping himself with the fine, lightweight bicycle required for road racing. Five of the team's machines are Italian, weigh about 20 pounds apiece, and have a range of 10 speeds.

The club, a first at Williams, is a recognized student activity, although it is not under auspices of the college athletic department. Its status is similar to that of the vigorous Rugby and White Water Clubs. Each member belongs to the Amateur Bicycle League of America, governing body of sport cycling in the United States.

Charles will compete in the club's first meet, the National Intercollegiate Road Race Championships, May 13 in West Rock Park in Hartford, Conn. The average speed for the 50 miles should be over 20 miles per hour.

Charles graduated from Helder-ness School, Plymouth, N. H., where he was leader of the Student Council, on the newspaper and yearbook, and a member of the varsity football and track teams.

SELECTMAN HAS NOT APPLIED FOR LICENSE

Similarity of names has been causing some confusion this week, following publication last Thursday of legal notices on applications for package store licenses.

The William Stewart applying for a package store license is a police officer, Selectman William Stewart has not applied for a license.

Health Board To Conduct Inspections

The Board of Health has sent a letter to all public establishments in the town, outlining its plans for health inspections.

Noting first that John J. Broderick, 37 Enmore st., has been appointed health inspector, the letter comments that he has "Full authorization and backing of your local Board of Health in all matters connected with the sanitary conditions of your establishment".

The letter asks for cooperation during Mr. Broderick's periodic inspections, and enclosed a sample form which will be filled out, evaluating the premises and scoring it on the basis of standards it meets. Copies of this form will also be sent to the proprietor of the establishment.

Minimum ratings have been set as follows: taverns, bars, cocktail lounges, 90 percent; restaurants, 75 percent; retail stores, 90 percent. Standards, the letter noted, will also be raised after a reasonable period "so that we will be operating on the highest health securing rate reasonably possible."

A routine "swab procedure" will be instituted in the future for determining the sanitary index of utensils - glass, silverware and dishes.

School Menu

The public school menu for next week follows:

Monday - orange juice, frankfurt in buttered roll, buttered kernel corn, potato chips, deep dish apple pie and milk.

Tuesday - hamburger and gravy, mashed potatoes, buttered green beans, wheat bread and butter, cookie and milk.

Wednesday - (High and Junior High), pepper steaks on buttered roll, tossed garden salad with ripe olives, peach shortcake and milk.

Thursday - chicken with gravy, mashed potatoes, peas and carrots, cranberry sauce, Vienna bread and butter, assorted gelatin with topping and milk.

Friday - tomato vegetable soup, tuna salad roll, fruit cobbler and milk.

"Look what we did for Ourselves"

Both of us work. Both of us save. Every payday we make a deposit in our Lawrence Co-operative savings account. We've been doing that for five years. That's how we got this beautiful tri-level house.

The saving habit sure pays off. You get so much more for your money when you pay cash for big purchases. Time payments cost money - often plenty of money.

Save before you buy. That way you get interest instead of paying interest at rates of 10 to 20 per cent a year. The difference is substantial.
